LOTUS HEART & GENERAL HOSPITAL

copy for insurer

Discharge Summary

Patient: Meera Iyer Age / Sex: 33 / F MRN: LHG-882741

Admission date / time: 18-Apr-2026 08:10 PM

Discharge date / time: 23-Apr-2026 11:30 AM

Consultant: Dr. R. N. Narasimhan, MD Pulmonary Medicine

Provisional diagnosis: Viral pneumonia with hypoxia; lower respiratory tract infection; dehydration.

Presenting complaints: fever, productive cough, fatigue, shortness of breath for 4 days.

Course in hospital: managed with oxygen support, IV antibiotics, nebulization, fluids, serial blood work and CT chest.

At discharge the patient was afebrile, maintaining oxygen saturation on room air and tolerating oral medications.

SCANNED COPY

Treatment / Procedure Notes

Admitted to monitored bed. Oxygen delivered through nasal prongs and titrated as clinically indicated.

IV ceftriaxone and supportive medications administered. HRCT thorax reviewed with bilateral patchy infiltrates.

No invasive procedure performed. No ICU stay. Mobilised on day 3.

Discharge Medication Advice

1. Tab Azithral 500 mg once daily x 3 days
2. Tab Paracetamol SOS for fever
3. Steam inhalation and hydration advice
4. Follow-up in chest clinic after 5 days with reports

Investigations Summary

CBC, CRP, LFT, RFT completed. Chest X-ray and HRCT thorax attached in report bundle.

Discharge condition: stable. Saturation 97% on room air. Ambulatory and advised rest for one week.

Prepared by: Medical Records Department